Section 3 - ADDITIONAL CLAUSES -

PEOPLE ON BOARD: Nobody, except those described in the contract can use the boat during the trip and it cannot host more than eight people under any circumstance.

ROUTE / NAVIGATION: If guests have a specific route desired it needs to be discussed and approved by the Captain at least 4 days prior to the departure. In any other case, the Captain will choose the best route and places to visit according to the weather and sea conditions.

WEATHER PATERNS: Captain will try to stick to the planned route as much as possible but if weather conditions and safety do not allow it, it might need to be modified or even partially or totally cancelled. Captain will have full right to change the route if necessary, even if it means staying at a port until weather conditions get better. Any complains or refunds could not be claimed as a result of this decision.

In the unlikely event of having to stay at the port for a few days, alternative activities will be suggested to the guests in order to make the stay as much enjoyable as possible. All port costs are paid by guests.

EXPENSES: The guests will pay all expenses at the time of purchase during the journey (fuel, mooring, food, fees, etc.) and at the end of the trip, once the condition of the boat has been checked; a final invoice will be made including any outstanding payments. A final cleaning service costs is required (130€) for every change of clients. Every extra change of bed linen has an extra cost of 100€

PAYMENT METHOD: 30% of the total amount must be paid at the booking stage when signing the contract. 20% of the total amount must be paid 120 days prior to the departure day and the 50% remaining must be paid 30 days prior to the departure day. In the case of last minute reservations and previously agreed with the lessor, the total amount will be paid by bank transfer or in cash at the moment of boarding. The transaction bank receipt serves as a provisional payment document and must be sent by email at alfons@sailmoments.com. Once received, a final invoice will be issued for the amount paid. As a general rule, all payments must be made by bank transfer.

DEPOSIT: The Lessee must also give to the lessor the amount of € 800 for the full boat as a DEPOSIT by cash or bank transfer before departure. Any damage due to improper use of the boat and not covered by the insurance policy will imply a total or partial retention of the deposit. The deposit may also serve as a guarantee to cover payments done by the crew and not included in the rental price during the trip. In case everything is correct and no retention is required, the deposit will be fully returned to the Lessee at the end of the contract. The value of the deposit does not exempt the customers from extra payments for expenses or damages if the total of them are higher than the deposit.

CANCELLATIONS: In the event that any lessee would like to cancel the trip for any reason, the lessor will retain the total or part of the rent as damages, charging any expenses originated by the cancellation. In the event that any lessee cancels the rent prior than 120 days before departure, the lessor will retain 50% of the total price. If the cancellation is communicated less than 40 days before departure, the penalty will be 100% of the booking. Under exceptional conditions and previously agreed the lessor, if the lesser is able to find a replacement for the same period booked no cancelation fees will apply.

LESSEE RIGHTS: If for any reason, and provided is not a Lessee responsibility, the boat was out of service, more than 24 hours and the costumers cannot live on board, the Lessee have the right to recover a proportional part of the amount paid in relation to the days that the boat could not function. There is no other reason than clients can give any money back. Bad weather or any disagreement with the crew will never be a reason to give the money back.

INSURANCE: The boat, the equipment and the crew have the following insurance: All Risk Hull with franchise and third Party Liability and Passengers. In the event that the damages are caused by the lessee and not covered by the Insurance, the lessee will be responsible for the total payment even if they exceed the deposit.

LESSEE RESPONSIBILITIES: The Lessee is obliged to indemnify Lessor for damages to third parties or any lost items or equipment resulting from his actions or negligence that were not covered by the insurance, covering both material and legal expenses. The Lessee assumes full responsibility for their actions for any type of legal infraction. The Lessor / boat-owner reserves the right of admission on board, and may force to leave the boat immediately to any or all of the customers, if necessary, whenever it considers that their actions endanger the safety of the boat or the rest of the occupants. In this case, the customers affected by this decision will lose any right to be indemnified and cannot require the total or partial refund of the amounts paid.

LOST PROPERTY: The lessor will never be responsible for the loss, destruction and / or damage of personal items or property on board.

COMPLAINTS: Complaints are only accepted if written and received at the end of the trip and no later than four hours from the arrival time. For any interpretation of this contract, only the Spanish Courts of the City of Reus are competent; and in proof of conformity, the attendants, in their respective interventions, sign the present agreement in knowledge and approval of the clauses, in duplicate exemplary and to a single effect.

The signature of this Agreement implies the acceptance of these conditions by the Lessee and there will be no obligation for the Lessor to indemnify the Lessee in any of the cases previously described.
